My dear Harold Weisberg:

What pleasure to know you are still with us!

As for myself I am hitting 90. I should not be doing any assassination stuff.

Your reply to my question about the Oswald interrogation tapes does not surprise. Apparently, I am the only one alive who knows there is at least one such tape — or was.

You see, as an encumbered college professor, all I had to work with back in the 60's were the 26 volumes of hearings and exhibits, plus what I call "junk". I mean by "junk" books written by people who just knew their grammar and punctuation. Except for the Ruby stuff, I had very damn interesting, believe it or not, plus the corresponding exhibits. The result was a 650+ page MSS that nobody wanted to even look at. The coincidence was in the first case that I brought the MSS to the Indiana University Press on the same morning the news came out Clay Shaw was acquitted. The Director of the Press showed no interest at all.

"I want to see it!" [illegible] he was enthusiastic and said,

Pardon me for so saying, I know things about the Kennedy assassination nobody else knows. Well, now the reference to the interrogation tape: 7H155. Kobovitz interview. Then go to 7H297 (Holmes interview) and see how he fails not tell the truth.

I gave the above information to Henry Hurt (Beyond Reasonable Doubt)

Could the tape(s) be in the National Archives. Holmes was an FBI informer.

Thanks again, and stay well.

Sincerely,
Joseph Schneider

P.S. I have all of Whitewash books + the Post Mortem book.

The finding of the death certificate was a stroke of luck!

My renewed interest in J.F.K. things is a response to the Oliver Stone movie.
